

SAMPLE DATA POLICY

Northwind Studio sample workspace

Document number: POL-2026-018

Effective date: June 1, 2026

Prepared by: Mara Ellison, Privacy Lead

Status: Sample only. Not a client policy and not legal advice.

This policy describes how sample documents are handled in this workspace. It is the text a visitor can ask about: who owns a file, who can open it, how long it is kept, and how a question is answered.

1. Purpose

Northwind Studio published this sample on June 1, 2026. It covers demo PDFs in the public folder and PDFs a signed-in account uploads. Harbor Supplies and the people named in the sample agreement are examples in those other files. They are not the operator of this workspace.

2. Who it covers

It covers a visitor who opens a demo PDF, and an account that uploads its own PDF. The privacy lead named on this sample is Mara Ellison. Policy questions go to privacy@example.com.

POL-2026-018, continued. Effective June 1, 2026.

3. Ownership

An uploaded PDF belongs to the account that uploaded it. The owner is the account on the upload record. The name printed inside the file does not change the owner.

On May 12, 2026, Jordan Hale uploaded Harbor-packing-list.pdf, 842 KB, to a sample account. That file belongs to Jordan Hale's account. Deleting it removes it from that account.

4. Demo files

Demo PDFs in the public demo folder can be opened by anyone. They have no owner account. The folder holds three samples: this policy (POL-2026-018), services agreement SSA-2026-014, and invoice INV-1044. Opening a sample does not count toward an account's file limit.

5. Private files

A signed-in visitor sees the samples plus the PDFs on that visitor's own account. One account cannot open another account's upload. A link to someone else's file does not show the file. The server checks the account before it returns the PDF or answers a question about it.

6. How long files are kept

Demo PDFs stay in the public folder while this sample workspace is published. An uploaded PDF stays until the account deletes it. After deletion the workspace does not keep a separate archive. Jordan Hale's packing list from May 12, 2026 would leave the account when that account deletes it.

7. How many files

An account can keep up to 5 uploaded PDFs. Each file must be a PDF of 10 MB or smaller. The three public samples do not count toward the 5. Delete an upload when you no longer need it if you want room for another file.

8. Questions about a document

A question is answered from the text of the open document, and the reply cites the page the words came from. A question about what the document contains, what it is about, or a request to summarize it is answered from that text. If the document does not state a specific fact, the reply says that it is not in the document. The demo does not fill a gap with outside knowledge.

9. What this sample does not collect

This policy does not describe a real customer database. The demo does not ask for a phone number, a payment card, or a home address. The invoice sample uses the fictional address 488 Market Street, Portland, OR 97204. Do not send a payment there.

10. Notices

Write to privacy@example.com. Mara Ellison reads sample messages on business days. A message received after 5:00 p.m. Pacific Time counts as received at 9:00 a.m. Pacific Time the next business day. The sample office is closed Saturday and Sunday.

11. Related sample documents

The services agreement is effective April 1, 2026, between Northwind Studio and Harbor Supplies. The monthly layout fee is 2400.00 USD. Invoice INV-1044 is dated May 2, 2026, adds a 40.00 USD courier, shows Total due: 2440.00 USD, and asks for payment by May 16, 2026. Those figures live in that invoice. This policy only points at them.

12. Changes

Northwind Studio may replace this sample text when the demo is updated. The effective date on page 1 changes when the text changes. A copy a visitor saved earlier is not updated. The version in the public folder is document POL-2026-018, effective June 1, 2026, prepared by Mara Ellison.

13. Contact for this version

Privacy lead: Mara Ellison, privacy@example.com. Sample mailing address: Northwind Studio, 120 Sample Avenue, Portland, OR 97204. The street address is fictional, like the rest of this file.

14. Sample notice

This document is a sample. The names, dates, amounts, and addresses in it are fictional. It is not legal advice and it is not the policy of a real organization. The sections above are the content of the file.
